If you would like to write, but don't have a topic, contact Dr. Gooch for a wish list.

Be in touch with John to find out what topics we would like to see covered. For starters, articles on the history of various conference agencies (Kingdom House, Ozark Methodist Manor, Della C. Lamb, and so on) ;

Articles on women's history, African-American history or missions;

OR...

Send notices (1-4 paragraphs) about local historical items and anniversaries that are significant but don't have enough material for a complete article.

What will YOU
Find In
Toward the Setting Sun?

- © Articles about our United Methodist heritage in Missouri—many of them by leading UM historians
- © News of local, district and conference historical moments and celebrations
- © Updates on important anniversaries and bicentennials in Missouri United Methodism
 - 1803—Louisiana Purchase
 - 1804—First circuit rider appointed to Missouri
 - 1816—Missouri Conference organized

These are only some of the key anniversaries we'll be celebrating. How did those events impact the life of the church today?
- © Membership in the Missouri United Methodist Historical Society is included as part of your subscription.
